A GIFT FOR MY Family

LYCHGATE
FUNERALS

Everyone has a story worth sharing

Everyone has a story worth sharing, and every life is filled with moments that deserve to be remembered. This booklet has been created to help you reflect on your journey, preserve your most cherished memories, and ensure your wishes are known when they matter most.

Use it to capture and share the experiences that have shaped your life, and preserve the moments and values that define you. By documenting your wishes for the future, you leave a lasting connection for those who love and cherish you.

Through these pages, your voice will endure, offering comfort, guidance, and a lasting legacy for your loved ones.

Younger Years

The date and time I was born is...

The place I was born is...

I weighed...

My Family

My parents' names are...

My parents' birthdays are...

My parents were born in...

My siblings' names are...

My favourite uncle/aunty/family friend was...

My grandparents were born in...

My spouse's name is...

My grandparents' names are...

My children's names are...

Memories

My most precious memories of growing up with my siblings/friends are...

Our favourite way to celebrate Christmas was...

The first thing I ever watched on television was...

When I was a teenager, on the weekends I used to...

When I went to my grandparents' house, I loved to...

School Memories

My first school was...

My high school was...

My favourite teacher was...

My favourite subject was...

My favourite sports were...

The other activities I enjoyed at school were...

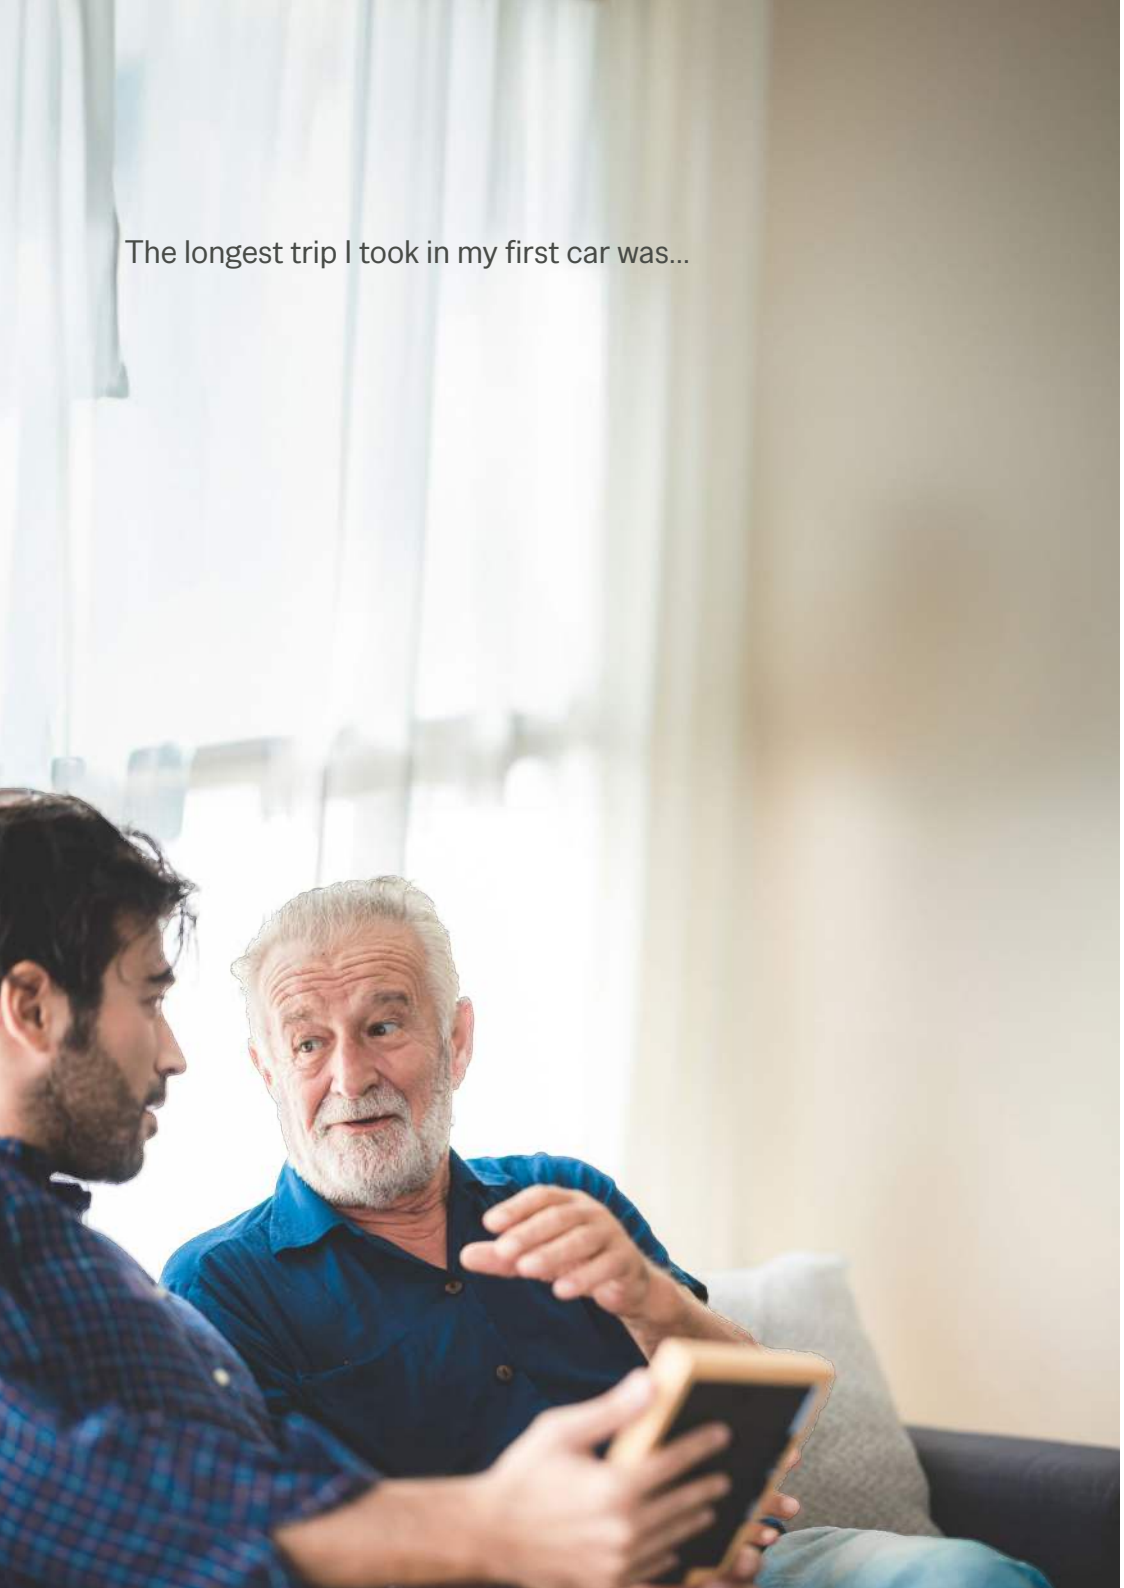
My first car was...

I used to travel to school by...

I was taught to drive by...

The reports I used to get from school were...

I left home when I was... and went to live...



The longest trip I took in my first car was...

The best hairstyle I ever had was...

The best outfit I ever had was...

My first love was...

The biggest adventure I ever had was...

Other thoughts and notes for my family:

My Last Wishes

It's important for your farewell to feel right to you, and meaningful to those you love. This chapter is here to help you express your wishes for when the time comes. That may mean a simple gathering, a celebration, or something deeply personal.

A farewell is a moment for those you love to come together, share memories, and honour your life in a way that feels right. By recording your preferences here, you're making things easier for them, giving them clarity and comfort during a difficult time.

Whether it's music, flowers from your garden, or a gathering filled with laughter, your farewell can be as unique as the life you've lived.

My will is located...

My preference is for a funeral at...

I'd like to be... (cremated/buried/etc.)

The music I'd like played at my service is...

The flowers I'd like (if they are in season) are...

The readings I’d like read at my service are...

These are the other things I’d like to happen:

LYCHGATE
FUNERALS
Call 04 385 0745
for 24 hour assistance
Wellington | Johnsonville | Karori
www.lychgate.co.nz