

Some of the decisions that need to be made:

Place of Service

(Lychgate Chapel, Church, other)

Religion

(optional)

Officiant

(Priest, Minister, Civil Celebrant)

Music to be played

(Tapes, CDs, organist)

Music to be sung

(Hymns, songs)

Bible Readings

Favourite literature or poems

Flowers

(sprays, tribute flowers)

Burial/Cremation

Preferred Crematorium

Preferred Cemetery

Not everyone wants the same type of funeral. You may have attended a service which made you think, "That's just what I'd like my funeral to be like when the time comes," or you may feel, "That's not the way I want my service to be."

Now you can record exactly what you would like to happen, so your family will know just the kind of farewell you want.

It may be in a church, or you might prefer a chapel, an outdoor service or just a quiet gathering at your residence.

Burial or cremation? Let your loved ones know which you prefer, and at which cemetery or crematorium.

List your favourite hymns, songs and flowers. You may have a reading or poem that you've always liked ... make a note of it so your family will include it in your service.

The Registrar of Births, Deaths & Marriages will require family details, e.g. your parents, place of birth, marriage details etc. Having them recorded in advance saves your family from having to locate birth & marriage certificates.

It's so simple – fill in a personal profile form and keep it at home with your records or we will keep it on file for you.

If your family knows what you would like, it will make things a little easier for them.
