

No masterpiece could ever portray the greatness of a parent's love.
It is a love beyond the reach of words or poetry.
Even if every ocean became ink and the whole sky were transformed into pages,
they would still be insufficient to record its boundless depth.
With all my heart, I offer my deepest love,
gratitude, and remembrance.

Beloved parents are a blessing beyond
compare and can never be replaced.
Their unconditional love reflects the goodness and compassion of God.

No love on earth is greater than that of a parent,
whose heart is filled with endless kindness and whose loving care never ceases. Their love remains with us always, unwavering and everlasting.

No song can truly convey the greatness of a parent's love.
There is nothing in this world that can ever compare to their endless compassion and sacrifice. With profound gratitude,
I dedicate my life to honoring their memory and repaying,
as best I can, the immeasurable love and kindness they have bestowed upon me.
